Of Local Interest.

Don't you know when Bailey gets excited he sells things?

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Murphy, of Castor, are the guests of Mrs. H. Bowen.

Call and see our new line of Fanning Mills. — Morrison & Johnston.

Mr. Frank Bellock, from McLeod River, N. W. Edmonton is the guest of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bowen.

Next Sunday evening the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed in the Methodist church.

Collier Lost.—Black and brown collie dog lost in Lacombe a few days ago. Has strap around neck. Finder please notify Mr. McKenty.

On Monday, Feb. 13th the Rev. T. J. Johnston M.A., B.D., of Olds, will deliver his celebrated lecture in the Methodist church on the subject "What is Man?" Come along and enjoy this literary treat.

The Rev. Thos. Powell was in Stettler on Monday night last, where he lectured to a large crowd on "The Other People We Meet."

The next assembly dance will be held in the opera house on Monday evening, 20th inst. This will probably be the last event of the season. Light refreshments will be served. Lynch's orchestra will provide the music.

The Young People of the Methodist church will hold the St. Valentine Social on Thursday, the 16th, instead of the 14th as advertised last week. All young people are invited. Come along and spend a pleasant evening.

There will be a change of pictures on Thursday and Friday nights this week at the Comet. On the 21st the Kenney-Harvey Entertainers, one of the funniest companies on the road will appear for one night.

The annual meeting of the Alberta Bible Society is to be held in Calgary next week. A number of the churches throughout the province are making an appeal for funds for the Bible Society. The churches in Lacombe have arranged for the same thing. On Sunday envelopes will be distributed in all the churches for the purpose and it is to be hoped that many will make use of them. Bring your contribution and enclose it in the envelope which will be provided for that purpose.

Mr. Frank Whiteside, Home-Steak Inspector, Castor, will have congratulations of a host of friends on his wedding at Moose Jaw on Friday, January 27, to Miss Daisy McGillivray. The ceremony was a quiet one, only the bride's near relatives being present, and took place at the Manse, Rev. S. McLean officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Alex McGillivray, now in Scotland, and lived east of Innisfail with the family for some years, lately making her home with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Yoe, at Moose Jaw. The honeymoon was spent at Banff and Red Deer.

On Tuesday afternoon the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey passed away. The little one is only three weeks old and had been sick for three or four days. The funeral which was conducted by Rev. T. Powell, took place this afternoon from the home to the station and the body was taken to Iowa for burial. The parents have three little ones buried in Paulina, Iowa, and this one will be laid along side the others. Mr. Godfrey accompanied the body back to their old home. Many friends will join in sympathy with Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey and their family because of this sad affliction which has come to them.

These statements that the opening of the United States markets to our wheat, cattle, fish, dairy produce, etc. is a serious blow to our policy of solidifying and consolidating the Dominion, and a fatal obstacle to closer Empire union along the lines of preferential trade are bound to suggest the thought that if matters are as bad as this, we are now and always will be defenceless against the United States, since it is always open to our neighbor, without any bargain with Ottawa or even saying "by your leave," to take off the duty on Canadian natural products and let them flow naturally into the markets thus opened. If Uncle Sam chooses to do this without going through the motions of a reciprocity agreement, how can Canada prevent him?

LOCAL SEED FAIR MOST SUCCESSFUL

Large Entry List and Splendid Sample of Grain.

The annual seed fair under the auspices of the local Agricultural Society was held in the town hall yesterday. The entries were not so numerous as in previous years but the sample of grain was excellent. The prizes were awarded as follows:

Winter Wheat.—1st, A. C. Bruns, Lacombe; 2nd, Jas. MacNeil, Blackfalds; 3rd, Murray Gibson, Lacombe.

Spring Wheat.—1st, A. C. Bruns, Lacombe; 2nd, John W. Armstrong, Canyon; 3rd, J. C. Vaughan, Lacombe.

Oats, Long White.—1st, E. W. Simpson, Lacombe; 2nd, E. W. Simpson; 3rd, P. A. Switzer, Lacombe.

Oats, White Medium.—1st, A. F. McGill, Olive; 2nd, A. Robertson, Canyon; 3rd, P. A. Switzer, Lacombe.

Barley, 6 rowed.—1st, A. C. Bruns, Lacombe; 2nd, J. W. Armstrong, Canyon.

Barley, 2 rowed.—1st, J. Southward, Lacombe; 2nd, E. W. Simpson, Lacombe.

Peas.—Thos. Henderson, Lacombe.

Brome Grass.—P. A. Switzer, Lacombe.

Rye.—P. A. Switzer, Lacombe.

Don't get it into your head you can buy 100 horses cheaper of any one than you can from Bailey, for you can't.

LACOMBE WINS AT THE NATIONAL CORN SHOW

Once More Demonstrated that Alberta Beats the World for Grain.

Just a little more evidence that Lacombe is about the best farming district in the world. At the National Corn Show held at Columbus, Ohio, this week, Alberta took 1st and 2nd prizes for oats and 2nd for wheat, with Saskatchewan 1st. The 2nd prize wheat was grown on the Experimental Farm here, while P. A. Switzer produced the 2nd prize oats. When it is taken into consideration that the fair is open to the whole world, this is a pretty good record.

Fair Dates 1911.

About 65 delegates attended the Fair Convention held at Lethbridge last week. Lacombe was represented by Capt. H. T. A. Evans, who was elected as one of the directors of the Fair Convention for this year. Our delegate put up a hard fight for the selection of Lacombe as the next place of meeting, but Calgary was finally decided upon. The dates fixed are as follows:

Wetaskiwin, Sept. 26 and 27.
Alx, Sept. 27.
Lacombe, Sept. 28 and 29.
Castor, Oct. 3 and 4.
Stettler, Oct. 5 and 6.
Ponoka, Oct. 8 and 9.

Great Woodman Rally and Class Adoption.

On Saturday, Feb. 11th, the door of the Comet Theatre will be thrown open for a public meeting to be addressed by Judge Stevens and O. C. Johnson, in the interests of the M. W. of A. Judge Stevens is an orator of great repute, and the treat in store for everyone is something to look forward to. The pictures of the evening will be run through, and everyone is welcome. All Woodmen are requested to be present and to remain to the class adoption and over supper.

The United States has thrown open its markets to the Canadian farmer the grain, the fruit, the vegetables, the dairy, as well as the fish and the coke, and the only comment that that rising Canadian star, one Atkin, millionaire member in London, makes is that "the despoilers are at Canada's throat."

Heifer Lost.

RIMBEY

Mr. and Mrs. Wise, of Waseca, Minn., were over Sunday visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe's.

On Monday, the 30th, a baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Rimbey. Sam now has a Roosevelt half-brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Flack left last Wednesday for Idaho where Mr. Flack's parents live.

Rev. Cole informed us that he could not preach at the M. E. church last Sunday, but not until too late to correct the announcement in last week's news. However, he will be with us next Sunday, February 12, at 3 o'clock, Sunday school at 2 p.m.

Grandma Mortimer, who has been quite sick with La Grippe, is reported better at this writing.

Mrs. Geo. Marshall is quite sick at present.

Harry Loyd has been confined to the bed for a week past with the grippe.

Mr. Frank Penbody, proprietor of the Rimbey hotel, has made an addition to their comfort by placing a piano in their home.

The Farmers' Institute at Rimbey was well attended and great interest was taken in the subjects which were discussed. The only thing to be regretted was that the time given to the discussions was entirely too short. A vote of thanks was tendered Messrs. Warner and Fowler and the wish expressed that they might again be billed for Rimbey, should they in future be billed for such work.

Miss Nellie Bunch is quite sick at this writing.

Word came over the phone Saturday that Mr. Platt, who was freighting for Mr. B. Thorpe, was taking sick on his return trip having to stop at Bentley. A vote of thanks was tendered Messrs. Warner and Fowler and the wish expressed that they might again be billed for Rimbey, should they in future be billed for such work.

The Woodman lecture, which was to have been given last Thursday, was postponed on account of the severe cold weather.

The concert last Wednesday night was very poorly attended owing to the inclement weather. The entertainment was greatly enjoyed by those present.

The Symonds school was closed a couple of days last week owing to the teacher, Mr. Saunders, being sick.

Never before in this community has there been known to be so much sickness as at present, principally the grippe.

How to cure a cold is a question in which many are interested just now. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and is now being sold by its remarkable cure of colds. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Dealers Everywhere.

BENTLEY

Don't mention it Rimbey, we have recovered our composure, which was so greatly disturbed by your serious mistake of a couple of weeks ago.

The Woody Co. have opened a singing class here of thirty-five and after their first instruction, on Saturday night seemed very well pleased. The convention promises to be a very lively and interesting one and we are sorry that the class is not larger. The free concert on Friday night was well rendered and received.

The Agricultural meeting on Saturday afternoon was not very largely attended. Owing to the cold weather, a wood saw running next door, and preparations for a funeral being made, many were unable to attend. A large number of the ladies turned out, however, many interested in the talk on poultry.

Messrs. Evers, Aldridge and Martindale, of Wittenberg, stopped over in Bentley on Monday night on their way to Lacombe.

Mr. Martindale is on his way to Oregon, having sold his place in Medicine Valley to Mr. Aldridge.

The singing convention under the instruction of Mr. Woody is progressing favorably.

Fritz Ebling and gasoline wood sawing outfit is putting Jas. McPherson and Dr. Evans and bucks saws out of work.

Miss Rachael Bowen is back at the "Arcade" again after two weeks visit at her home near Rimbey.

The Misses Edna Hutchinson and Ada Buckley are helping Mrs. McPherson at the "Arcade."

The McPhersons, Brox, Lumber Co. are loading a car of lumber this week for Lignite.

Died at the Lacombe Hospital, on Saturday morning, February 4th, 1911, Elvin R. Stephenson, aged 26 years, beloved son of Mrs. Elsie Stephenson, of Bentley. "Al" as he has been known to his many friends for many years, was one of Bentley's brightest and most popular young men, and a prominent member of the Modern Woodmen Lodge of this place, and his death caused a deep cloud to settle over us all, and great sympathy is felt for the family of the deceased. The funeral was conducted by the M. W. of A. Lodge here, and was in charge of Consul O. P. Danvers, while the services were performed by the Rev. O. E. Mann, on Monday afternoon, February 6th.

TAXES WILL HAVE TO BE PAID.

Report Sent Out Re G. P. K. Taxation Was Erroneous.

Early despatches from London intimated that the decision of the Privy Council meant among other things that land bought from the O. P. R. was not taxable until the last instalment of the purchase money had been paid. This it seems was erroneous. The point submitted was whether or not land which was sold under agreement for sale but which reverted to the company was thereafter taxable. The decision on this point was in the affirmative. The land becomes taxable when the sale is made, and remains taxable thereafter whether it reverts to the company or not. Once taxed always taxed, is the rule.

HOW IT HAPPENED

The Albertan Tells of the Defeat of Lacombe's Hockey Team

The Albertan of Friday says:

When everything is taken into consideration the game of last night, in which Calgary club defeated Lacombe by the score of 6 to 2, was the best exhibition of hockey played here this winter.

Calgary won by better team work and better shooting. Lacombe felt a little strange on the big ice sheet during the first half, but in the second half they located themselves and played just as well and perhaps a little better than the locals. The game was rough enough and but for the eagle eye of the referee and the severe penalties meted out at the start it would have been even more so.

The "Cals" had a practically new team on the ice from what they had at the start of the season. Kent, MacKenzie and Lowes being the only men who have played in all the games from the start. The two Soona men, Clarke and Sutherland, whom the Calgary club announced yesterday would not play were there as big as life. Two men of the Bankers' team of the city league, White and Pritchard, played their first provincial game last night.

The Lacombe team had Bud Kent playing centre. Kent is the man over whom there was so much trouble when the Cals went to Lacombe Tuesday. Then the Cals refused to play the game unless Kent was taken off the ice.

Last night, however, both teams used outside men. No pang of conscience seemed to bother the Cals over disregarding the righteous announcement to the public yesterday morning that they wanted to live up to the spirit of the constitution and would never do anything wrong again, forever and ever. Amen.

But that is another story. This is a story of the game. The Cals had the best of the argument all through the first half. They gave a pretty exhibition of team work and outplayed their opponents. The defence of the Lacombe team is all that saved the score from being run up much higher. Lacombe depended mostly upon individual rushes. Their team work except on defence, was a negative quality. Lacombe had the better of it in the individual star work. They were quicker in getting the puck. This was especially noticeable after the face off, the Lacombe team getting the disc out of face. The forward line of the Cals showed splendid form. Pritchard and Sutherland doing especially well.

In the second half some really good hockey was on tap. Both teams played hard and fast. The Lacombe team gave up their individual tactics and depended more upon team work. The defence of the Cals showed up brilliantly in this period. Kent was always on the job. He covered back well whenever he made trips down the ice alone. While did some splendid work at point and used his body to good effect when breaking up the Lacombe combinations. From first to last McGrath probably played the best game of the evening. In the first half he played on the defence and played his position very well. He showed up to good advantage whenever he got a chance to sprint down the ice. In the following period he played on the forward line. He showed up even better here, and was the pivot around which most of the combinations were centred, when Lacombe did get their combinations in working order.

Clarke, the nimble goaltender of the Cals, was the fellow to run close second in getting the face hand from the large crowd of fans. He made some wonderful stops that cannot be attributed to mere luck. He wasn't afraid to get out and meet the rushes of the opposition, when they succeeded in evading the primary defence and last, but not least, he used his head to good advantage. He made one of the prettiest saves that has been seen here this season. Bud Kent had succeeded in coming all the way down the ice and had gotten past brother down the centre of the ice and right in front of the net; when Clarke jumped out like a spider after a fly, sent Kent sprawling and put the rubber into safe territory.

Scottie MacKenzie played a brilliant and fearless game. He gave a splendid exhibition of skating and stick handling and was right in the midst of all the combinations. And he wasn't so slow at locating the net either. This has always been Scottie's weak point heretofore. The first goal of the evening was accounted for by Scottie and it was a dandy. The puck was faced about even with the nets and at the side. Pritchard got it out of face and batted it to MacKenzie, who shot it between the flags so fast that the goal tender couldn't see it.

In the first half Pritchard was a star of the first magnitude. He played a pretty passing game and did some unusually clever dodging in forcing the puck around his opponents and down the ice. However, he let up considerably at the finish.

Lowes and Sutherland did some excellent work on the wings. They played together well and did not try to do too much grand stand work.

The Lacombe men were all individual stars. To see who were in the line light it is only necessary to glance at the lineup. Bud Kent lived up to his reputation and played a brilliant game. But so did all the others and that is no distinctive difference. Moon was unusually strong between the flags and spoiled a whole lot of shots that looked like sure counters.

Goals. 1. Calgary, MacKenzie, 6 min. 2. Calgary, Pritchard, 8 min. 3. Calgary, Sutherland, 2 min. 4. Calgary, Pritchard, 12 min. Score—First half, Calgary, 4; Lacombe, 0.

5. Lacombe, McGrath, 14 min. 6. Lacombe, Moffat, 4 min. 7. Calgary, Lowes, 5 min. 8. Calgary, Lowes, 5 min. Score—Second half, Calgary, 2; Lacombe, 2. Final score—Calgary 6, Lacombe 2.

Pritchard got the puck out of face, but Stewart returned it to the Calgary territory. Sutherland and Lowes figured in a neat combination, but McGrath met them in the Lacombe territory and featured with a rush down the ice. He only used half of a stick in this sprint, the other half being broken off when he grabbed the puck. McGrath, armed with another stick, made another dash down the ice that made a hit with the crowd. Pritchard got the glad hand, too, when he batted in a near-combination and carried the rubber down.

MacKenzie made the first score, putting the puck safe after getting it from the mixup at the face. This was made from a difficult angle. Pritchard was right in the centre of the limelight rays for the next few minutes. He did some pretty passing and dodging that made a hit with the grand stand. Shortly after this Clarke did his first duty by stopping a pretty one that was aimed at him from a mix-up in front of the goal. The game began to be a little rough, and both sides tried mixing it up.

Pritchard scored the second goal in eight minutes after the last goal was made. He featured with a pretty rush down the ice, evaded everyone and shot one straight for the flags. Mann stopped this, but Pritchard followed up his shot and got it on the rebound and begged the net.

McGrath broke the path to the fence, and while he was there Sutherland made the third counter. This was a difficult shot, made from an angle. Calgary 3, Lacombe 0.

The brothers Kent met in centre ice and bowed backwards to each other. Pritchard and Lowes did some pretty combination stunts, but were unsuccessful. Bud Kent went to the fence for tripping Lowes, but had no more than gotten on to the ice before he was cross-checked by White, and the latter went to roost. Just after this Clarke made a grand stop by going out to meet Bud Kent and sending him sprawling after he had evaded the whole team. The play went from end to end until the last two minutes of this half. Lowes made a swell run down the side of the ice almost down to the goal, and passed to Pritchard in centre ice, who put it between the flags.

Watchorn turned a flip over Kent when he was body-checked and went down for the count. There was some delay while Reid, who was standing on the side lines got into a hockey suit to finish the game. Play only continued a couple of minutes after the teams got lined up again, and nothing was accomplished in the closing moments.

Score: First half—Calgary 4, Lacombe 0.

When the second half opened the Lacombe team had switched their team. McGrath was switched from cover to rover, Moffat from rover to right wing, and Reid was put in at cover. The change was better for Lacombe, as McGrath had a better chance to show up his fast skating. The whole game was faster from this time on. The Lacombe team had the better of the argument, and Clarke was forced to stop several near-goals. The referee delayed the game to some extent, for he called the offside and saw several that nobody else in the crowd saw. Sutherland was the first man to perch on the fence.

The fastest kind of play followed for 14 minutes before McGrath carried the puck down the ice alone and made the first score for the visitors.

Clarke made a good effort to stop this one, but the rubber carried off the goaltender's stick and went safe.

Moffat was the next man to break into the score column. He made his advent with a pretty combination worked between him and McGrath all the way down the ice. Clarke was drawn out of the net to meet them, but they slipped it over when he was away from home.

The Lacombe boys began to play desperately from this time on and slashing, tripping and everything else went. The locals were somewhat guilty, too, and both teams had representatives on the fence for a good share of the time.

Lowes made the first score for Calgary five minutes after the last Lacombe goal of this half. He made a pretty angular shot right after a face off and while Ab Kent was off the ice. Calgary 5, Lacombe 2.

This continued to be a rough house affair, and Ab Kent jammed Reid to the boards and Reid's nose was broken in the melee. When Kent got back on the ice the Lacombe men lay in wait for him but didn't succeed in doing him much injury.

Lowes repeating his scoring stunt just five minutes after his previous success, getting the puck out of a scrimmage near the Lacombe goal.

Things got into such shape that the referee warned the players that he would send the next rough house man off for the rest of the game, and he did as he threatened. White and McGrath each had to quit the game before the set time. No more scores were made, and time was called with the rough work still continuing.

Score: Second half—Lacombe 2, Calgary 2.

The "Back to the Farm" Idea Unsound?

The editor of an agricultural paper in Ontario, Mr. Gordon Waldron, made a long plea recently on behalf of the farmer and painted a harrowing picture of the change that had been wrought in that province through the neglect to pay proper attention to his needs. He laid particular stress on the decline of the rural population since the seventies and assumed that this was clear evidence that agriculture was very much on the decline.

Now one has considerable hesitation about the challenging the conclusions of a man who is supposed to know a very great deal about agricultural conditions, but one could not help suspecting that Mr. Waldron was assuming just a trifle too much. Evidence has been adduced from time to time of the wealth of the Ontario farmer and the stability which he gave to that province. We know how much the improvement in farm implements has accomplished in the way of maintaining farm labor. Are as many people now required in the country as were needed thirty and forty years ago? This is a question which Mr. Waldron overlooked entirely.

An answer to his address is supplied by one which was given the other day by a still better known friend of the farmer, Prof. L. H. Bailey, the director of the agricultural college at Cornell University and the editor of Country Life.

He made a statement which will cause a little surprise, coming from such a source. The "Back to the farm" idea, he declared, is scientifically unsound.

"The present census," he said, "shows that not over one-quarter live on the farms and I believe that in 1920 not more than one-fifth will be on the farms, and that will be enough. We are passing out of rural civilization."

He admitted that many persons who go to the country from the cities are successful, but he added: "Merely to place more people back on the land will not reduce the cost of living. The economic question is how to find out the cause of the waste between the farm and the dinner table."

He said that society is not yet sufficiently organized to correct this waste. "What we need," he said, "is economic co-ordination between the city and country in order to balance our civilization. Because there are less farmers now than years ago is no reason to think that there will be a falling off of farm products, because science is taking the place of farm hands and there is a sufficient ratio of people in the country to produce for all mankind."

Prof. Bailey favored settlement in villages. Many factories, he thought, could be taken from cities to towns where employees could have their own truck gardens to help support them.

Great as have been the changes that the last half century has seen in agricultural conditions, it is safe to say that they will be fully matched by those immediately ahead of us.

A Revolution in Our Market Outlook.

The greatest market news that has ever been rung in the West is the Reciprocity Agreement arrived at by the governments of Canada and the States, which will undoubtedly become law very shortly.

It means
Free Trade
between the two countries in the following list of articles:

Wheat
Oats
Barley
Rye
Potatoes
Cattle
Horses
Hogs
Sheep
Poultry
Eggs
Hay
Straw
Butter
Cheese
Milk
Grass Seeds
Clover Seeds
Vegetables
Fruit

and many other articles that do not so materially affect farming interests.

The duties on a long list of other articles, which include products of the farm in a more or less manufactured state and which also includes Implements and Machinery, are reduced.

What does it mean to the farmer of the west? So far no one has ventured to estimate exactly, but all agree that it will have far reaching results.

Our home market is limited to a population in the thousands, growing much slower than our productive capacity. Our Old Country market, 5000 to 6000 miles away, as our main dependence, would mean lower and lower prices, if it did not become altogether impossible, as our products increased. The shipment of our grain and cattle by car-load to the Atlantic seaboard, and then to Europe, is as futile and profitless as hauling them in spoonfuls would be from Blindman and Pleasant Valleys to Lacombe.

Therefore the Free Trade opening to a new market of 100 million population, right at our door looks good—very good.

As far as the farmer is vitally concerned it makes us one people and one country from the Arctic to the Gulf of Mexico, and our land values, population and progress generally should feel it immensely.

STOLE PACKAGE OF DIAMONDS.

B. Morrison, of Lacombe, Arrested on a Serious Charge.

About two months ago a package consigned by express to a Stettler jeweler, mysteriously disappeared between here and its destination. The express agent at this point had the receipt of the expressman on the east-bound train for delivery of package to him, but no package ever arrived at Stettler. The package contained two diamond rings valued at about $600, and the railroad detectives were soon put on the case.

The fact that the express agent on the east train had signed receipt for the package put the detectives on the wrong trail, and for a long time they worked on the theory that the package was taken at Stettler.

In some manner, however, it got to their ears that a driver of one of the express rigs, Bayfield Morrison by name, had exhibited some good looking diamonds to his friends and had taken a ring valued at about $400 to C. R. Denike the jeweler, to have it enlarged. He told how he had become possessed of the jewel, and as he appeared to have no idea of the value of the brilliant, his story was believed. The detectives, however, got possession of the ring and it proved to be one of those missing. On Saturday night he was arrested by Sergt. Enser and after a short session confessed to the theft, and took the Sergt. to the place where he had hidden the other ring. He was taken before the magistrate on Saturday night and remanded until next Saturday, when he will be given a preliminary trial.

That this young man was guilty of the theft was a great surprise to his employer and all citizens who knew him. Although having been employed at the same work for over a year, he was found to be strictly honest and hard-working, and his friends are at a loss to understand why he committed the crime.

Don't overlook Bailey when you are looking for a horse or 100 horses.

The Sleeping Beauty.

From the advance sale of tickets for the production of the "Sleeping Beauty" operetta, standing room only will be obtainable on the night of the show. This promises to be the best theatrical and musical event of the season. The entire production is by local talent, and the children are now well up in their parts. The Juvenile Locomotives will have to take a back seat when the Juvenile Locomotives hold the boards. With beautiful costumes and special scenery, the stage will be a veritable fairy land. A musical program of the very highest class is also being prepared in addition to the operetta, the leading musicians of the town and district taking part. Secure your tickets early and get your seats marked off at the opera house box office. And do not forget the date—Tuesday, Feb. 14.

The Reformation.

The following is a synopsis of the last of the series of lectures on the above subject by Rev. A. J. Paton:
The results of the reformation in reformation times must be the limit of the scope of this lecture. In the glorious vision of missionary progress and true unity now dawning is a prophecy that the fullness of resultant blessing is by no means reached yet. Great underlying principles were reasserted concerning the relationship of the individual soul to God and the church to its founder and her responsibility to the world. Strong negative teaching served to clear the way for affirmations of great truth. On the Continent the teaching of Luther, Calvin and others caused wholesale secessions from the Roman Communion; secessions aggravated by bulls of excommunication and diabolical persecution.

In England taking into consideration the greatness of the change now made, there was very little sign of a revolutionary character. Although the English church had become so thoroughly Romanized, her inherent and historic independence no doubt contributed to the comparative orderliness of the proceedings. The first divisions among English Christians occurred in Reformation times. Many who had been in exile during times of persecution wished the Church in England to adopt the same form of church government etc. as had become necessary on the continent. For a while these differences were of a more friend-

ANNUAL MEETING OF HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION

After three attempts to get a quorum in attendance, the annual meeting of the Lacombe Hospital Association was held in the town hall on Wednesday evening last. After the reading of the minutes of previous meeting, the Secretary-Treasurer presented his report for the year, which showed the hospital to be in a very satisfactory financial condition. The report is published herewith.

President Urquhart and Mr. McKenty, Secretary-Treasurer, tendered their resignations from the Board. At the urgent request following is the financial statement for the year:

ly character but ere long the Presbyterians in England separated themselves from the National church. (In Scotland the Presbyterian became the established church.) Later secessions do not come within the scope of this paper. Among the principles settled upon the English church by the Reformation may be mentioned: 1. The Supremacy of Scripture; 2. The right of the national church as to the conduct of rites and ceremonies; 3. The preservation of the historic episcopate. The marks of the English Church from then till now are well summed up in the words: Catholic, Apostolic, Reformed Protestant. On the one hand the churchman today "has learned to look behind the reformation and see that the church of Cranmer, Latimer and Ridley was no new church but the same as the church of Aidan. An salon and Langton, historically continuous, but restored to something of its original purity." On the other hand, as an English Bishop recently said, "while she is separated by a boundless ocean from the Roman Catholic Church, she is separated by a narrow sill from the nonconformist churches."
